Ahoy, Shipmates,

Well, here's something you may not have known…We have a couple of ladies' golf teams that play every year in the Ambassadors Classic Golf Tournament. Our very own Sue Woolf, Ginny Johnson, Connie Calo-Kudlac, and Rosemary Lippert won this year's tournament on 10/11, thus the trophy will reside once again in our CIYC trophy case.
Way to go, ladies!

Ventura County Caregivers Sailathon

The 22ND annual Ventura County Caregivers Sailathon was held on 10/15. What a great water event! Every kind of watercraft was encouraged and invited to participate. After the water portion of the event, all returned to a packed CIYC house for a fabulous Chili and Chowder Cook-off. This volunteer organization, with raffles, drawings, and pledges for the watercraft vessels, raised a tidy sum of over $20,000. These funds will assist our local elderly and allow them to stay in their homes as long as possible.

The Parade of Lights will take place on 12/9 and the event's theme is "Santa's Workshop." Rande Lance has been kind enough to offer his boat, Valkyrie, to be our winning boat! The committee, chaired by Dann and Cindy Daggett, keeps growing. So far, our talented CIYC elves include Tim and Jennifer Smith, Jon and Tami Osborn, George Hornberger, James Walters, Gary Solt, Andi Light, Lisa Medlen, Barbara Brauns, Blair Dugan and yours truly. If you're a woodworker, painter, electrical wizard, seamstress, lighting and/or sound specialist, love decorating and having fun — we need your skills! Please reach out to me if you'd like to join in the effort. We have our sights on the trophy this year and will be having 50/50 drawings to assist in the funding of this amazing project. Of course, donations are always welcome ☺. We're going to knock this out of the park!

That's a wrap…SEE YOU AT THE CLUB OR ON THE WATER, SHIPMATES!

From the Quarterdeck

Rear Commodore—Rocky Rockwell

Greetings!
This is my last column for the Currents. Thank you all for supporting me this year.

As you may or may not have heard, at the October Board of Directors meeting, I resigned my seat on the Board. This also necessitated my removal as Rear Commodore. There have been several ups and downs over the past ten months, but I have enjoyed the job. Sophia is getting more involved in sports and friends, and I have chosen to focus my time on her and be as engaged as possible. She is growing so fast; I don't want to miss anything! This is not goodbye, though. I am not going anywhere. Though I will no longer be on the Board or Bridge, I have offered to remain Chaplain for 2024. I will also help the incoming Rear Commodore with getting up and running.

We had a great lineup of sold-out Wednesday dinners this month! Linda Greenup and Evelina Arglen served up Waldorf salad with pork tenderloin, followed by a game of left, right, and center, where some won big! Shana Whitmore, Cary Verstynen, and Keith Moore put on an Oktoberfest followed by a yodeling competition… this club has talent! Kathleen Mooney, Ted Gerdes, and Karen and Larry Stein served us a vegetarian feast that even meat lovers enjoyed! Many of these events sold out early. Please make your reservations early so our chefs can best prepare.

A special thank you to all our chefs, crews, and members behind the scenes, setting tables, decorating, taking reservations, and planning to make these events unique and enjoyable!

For November, Commodore Lisa Marie is organizing Wednesday night chefs and crews. If you've never cooked before, we invite you to cook with experienced chefs to become more familiar with the kitchen. It's a fun way to meet other members, and you don't need to be a Michelin chef to contribute to a great meal! Contact Lisa Marie if you are interested or have questions.

We have a full November lineup of in-house events:
Nov 3rd Birthday & Anniversary Bash
Nov 4th Beefeaters
Nov 10th Beachside Jazz Band Concert & Potluck
Nov 11th Anglers' Awards Lobster Dinner
Nov 18th Awards Dinner - Epicureans
Nov 23rd Thanksgiving Potluck

THANK YOU
ROCKY & SOPHIA!

Football: on TV in the bar each Sunday, Monday, and Thursday.
We also have a month of DJ Trivia on Thursdays and Lite Bites on most Fridays.

Congratulations to the 2024 Bridge and Board; I am excited for the new year!
Thank you.

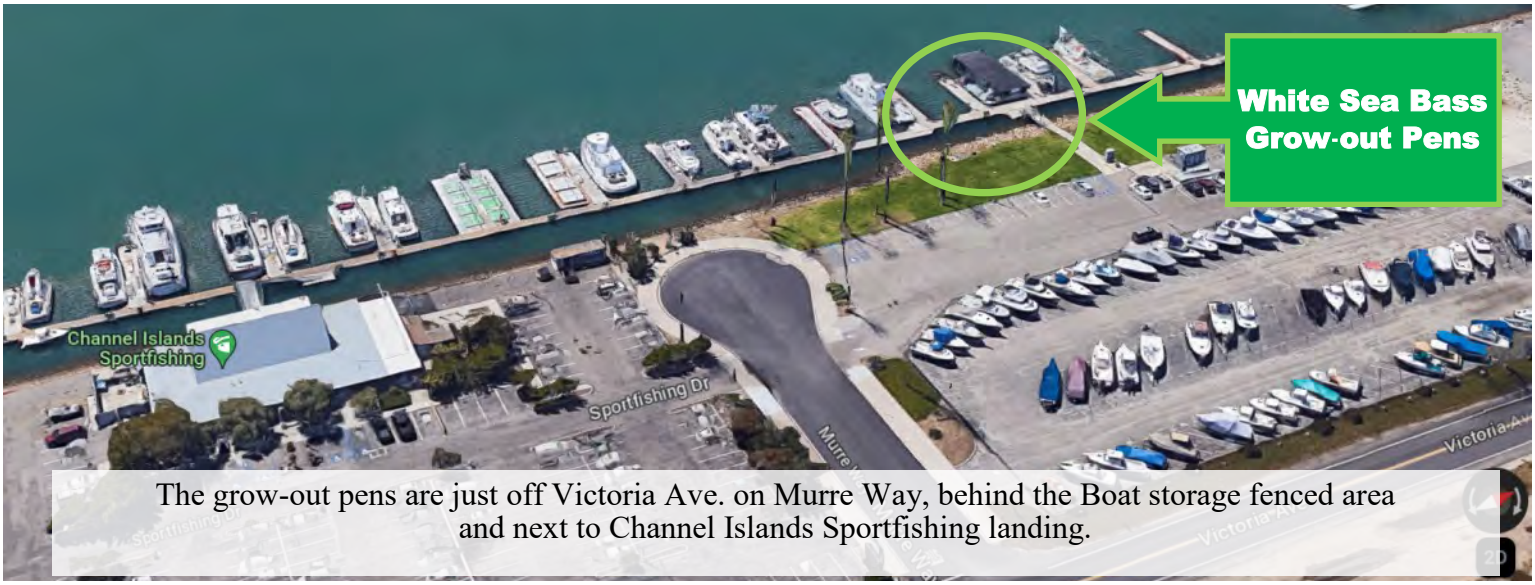
White Sea Bass Grow-out Pen Report:

We expect delivery of our next cohort of 8,000 Juvenile White Sea Bass (WSB) to the grow-out pens on Friday NOVEMBER 3rd 2023 and Monday NOVEMBER 6th about Noon.

We will need some help setting up the sluice ways and dropping the containment nets into the pens. If you can make it, please be at the Channel Islands Harbor WSB pens about 11:45 am let me know if you can make it. We usually get 10,000 fish but they expect a warmer water "El Nino" year this year. The fish should grow rapidly and they want us to keep them in the pens until they get bigger than in previous years.



The grow-out pens are just off Victoria Ave. on Murre Way, behind the Boat storage fenced area and next to Channel Islands Sportfishing landing.

We had several incursions of sea lions into the empty pens, but our diving service repaired the holes in the predator nets while removing the accumulated mussels. In addition, Jimmy Fillo dived on an obstruction and removed the part of it that was snagging the nets. We think the problem is resolved.

Big Fish of the Month:

So far, the Big Fish of the Month for October is Randy Cabral's 20-lb. halibut, caught while fishing off Port Hueneme.

Anglers' Awards Dinner November 11th

This year we are changing things up a bit because we found a good source for BIG Lobster Tails. We decided to serve the lobster now instead of scampi because lobster prices are much higher in the spring.

So, sign up early and enjoy a great dinner and honor those who are getting Anglers' Awards. There will be drawings to support the white sea bass pens as well as Anglers' projects.

CIYC RACING REPORT By Cap'n Jane Thomas

Ahoy, CIYC Racing and Non-Racing Members:

The17th annual Lady at the Helm Race is scheduled for Saturday, November 4. Co-sponsored by Channel Islands Yacht Club and Channel Islands Women's Sailing Association, this casual race was initiated in 2007 by CIYC to celebrate more women on the water and at the helm.

To make this event happen, we need volunteers for the Race Committee, in the galley, and on the race course! We have an RC boat (tentatively), but it would be nice to have a backup - just in case. Any mid-sized vessel that can motor halfway to Ventura, is able to anchor for an hour in 50-75ft, and has room astern for a few folks with flags and horns will work!

The Race Committee commitment runs from approximately 9:30am to 12:30pm. No special skills are required for RC crew, we'll train you on the spot, and it's a great introduction to local sailboat racing and to other CIYC members. Galley helpers can set their own hot lunch menu for returning racers and prepare it for the post-race awards at approx 4:00pm.

Rally your skipper, crew, and helmswoman! The Notice of Race is posted on Regatta Network (https://www.regattanetwork.com/event/27179) where Skippers can sign up, see the list of registrants, access race documents, and see race results.

Special notice to Racing Associate Members (RAMs):
Time is running out to fulfill your 2023 RAM agreement, ie, sailing 6 or more SCYA races and assisting at 3 or more club events or service activities. If you can race, don't miss out! If you need club service credit, helping on the Race Committee or in the galley counts as service.

Contact me directly to volunteer for Race Committee crew, back-up RC skipper, or galley helper; get more information; find a boat; or get help understanding the race documents, racing rules, and starting signals!

Thanks in advance for your assistance!

STARLINK

I author multitudes of reports on a weekly basis (thank you, Dragon dictation software). Because I need to access information about the patients I evaluate and treat, most of my reports are done at my office or at home. I always had the dream, anchored at Frys or Coches Prietos, dinghy tied to the transom, ready for adventures, but being able to do work at the same time. Well, there is a way!

Starlink, SpaceX's satellite internet service, is becoming a prominent new mobile internet option for RV and Boat connectivity. SpaceX has over 4500 satellites in operation, and is launching more on a weekly basis. The ultimate goal of Starlink is to provide fast, affordable, low-latency * internet anywhere in the world.

The Federal Communications Commission recently authorized SpaceX to provide Starlink internet service to vehicles in motion, including boats, cars, and RVs. This has opened up the service to cruisers and yachts in North America as the coverage areas continue to grow.

Starlink internet is a dream come true for many of us with boats who wish to remain Internet connected, especially when we are out of cell service (I still take my Garmin inReach and Iridium satellite phone whenever at the islands). Starlink recently announced a Roam and Residential service to access the satellite internet when away from your service address. This portability option is great for boaters who split their time between boat and home. However, be warned. Elon Musk continues to shift and change Starlink offerings and terms of service, often without grandfathering existing customers.

While Starlink appears to be getting the most attention right now, it's definitely not the only player in the global satellite game. A company called One Web currently has a constellation of more than 600 LEO satellites and signed a deal with Intellian last year to provide terminals and antennas. Then there is Amazon's Project Kuiper which aims to put more than 1,500 LEO satellites into orbit over the next five years.

With so much investment and technology coming downstream, boaters will soon have plenty of options for surfing, downloading, and binging no matter where they roam.

Let me know about your experiences with internet and phone connectivity when away from the dock.

* Low-latency refers to a minimal delay in the processing of computer data over a network connection. The lower the processing latency, the closer it approaches real-time access. A lower latency network connection is one that experiences very small delay times.

Harbor's Food & Toy Drive on Saturday, December 9th

The Channel Islands Harbor Department and the Harbor & Beach Community Alliance (HBCA) invite all to participate in supporting this year's Harbor Food & Toy Drive.

As you may be aware, 1 in 4 people in Ventura County are struggling with food insecurity though the majority are working more than one job. In Oxnard, more than 145,000 of our community's neighbors are food insecure. That is more than 71% of Oxnard.

This year's goal is to raise $30,000 in monetary donations to provide 90,000 meals. A matching challenge gift of up to $13,000 will provide a strong start to this year's efforts. This means every dollar contributed will have twice the impact. In 2022 we raised $28,202; this included a matching challenge donation of $12,000.

The event will take place from 10am – 4pm at the new site: Harbor View Parking Lot on Harbor Boulevard. Donors will still be able to drive up and have volunteers unload their cars. Volunteers are needed to help - please contact me if you are interested in volunteering.

Food donations will go to Food Share of Oxnard and toy donations will go to the County Firefighters' Spark of Love.

Audit Report of Harbor's Management of Boat Slip Inventory Issued

On October 4, 2023, the County's Internal Audit Department issued its report: "Harbor Department's Management of the Channel Islands Harbor Boat Slip Inventory." This audit was done at the request of the Harbor & Beach Community Alliance in July 2021. The audit request was triggered by the Harbor's Public Works Plan Amendment #7 (PWPA7) which reduced the number of boat slips in the harbor. The audit was also needed since no physical inventory of boat slips had been done since 2008.

A summary of findings:

Overall harbor-wide boat slip inventory, generally complied with the PWP; conversion of some slips for larger boats was supported by community needs and demand. However, the following concerns were also identified:

1. Harbor management's current method for determining boat slip inventory and size distribution could produce inconsistent and unreliable results.
2. Permits may not have been issued to all live-aboard renters due to discrepancies between the Harbor Patrol's listing and marina-provided data.
3. Department oversight practices could be improved to ensure compliance with the PWP.

The audit utilized a County geographic information system app that allowed the use of aerial imaging of the Harbor as of October 16, 2022. Corrective action should be completed by October 31, 2023.

The report is available on the Auditor Controller website or I can send you a copy upon request.

Wendell Morrisset, Past Commodore, is 98!

For a male baby born in the US in 1925, the average life expectancy is 57.6 years. But some folks, as we know, are well "above average."

Wendell Morrisset, CIYC Commodore in 1977, is in that category. Wendell just turned 98 in October. Born in Lubbock, Texas, in 1925, over the years he's managed to outlive all his siblings, not to mention a host of CIYC members.

Wendell, who lives at the Ventura Townehouse, has a few secrets to share with the rest of us. It may be that the key to a long life is that cigar he smoked daily up until last October.

Or it may be that "Pink Squirrel" drink that remains his favorite today. (It's a shot of scotch with one ice cube that he and bartender Kami named.)

Or the happy 63-year marriage he shared with his wife Jeanne, who died in 2009.

Or it could be his successful career, including serving as a Marine Corps officer in World War Two, working as a bank president, then functioning as the righthand man to the late Oxnard developer, Martin V. "Bud" Smith, and, finally, working as a real estate broker in partnership with his wife. He also served as the president of the Oxnard Chamber of Commerce and was on the board of Channel Islands National Bank.

Whatever his secret, Wendell continues to enjoy each day. Up until his move to the Townehouse a year ago, he loved living in Mandalay Bay with his power boats (first, a 28-foot Luhr, then a 32-foot Luhr, and most recently, an electric boat) right outside at the dock. But he also loves his life at the Townehouse where he says hello to at least five people just going into the dining room. He also loves hearing from former yacht club buddies, his children, and grandchildren (he's got five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren).

Daughter Cindy Daggett recalls, "He and my mother had second homes in Palm Desert and Kona, and visited both several months each year. They worked hard and relaxed just as hard. Dad loved reading books, boating, talking story (as they say in Hawaii), and playing golf." Together Wendell and Jeanne raised three children—John, Rick, and Cindy.

Wendell became a CIYC member in 1976. His second year with the club, he was sitting in the back of the room when a friend nominated him for the board. "It was," he explains with a chuckle, "a unanimous vote since no one else wanted the position." Soon after, a board member tracked him down at his boat dock, wanting him to run for Commodore. And so he became Commodore in 1977, never having attended a board meeting.

Wendell Morrisset, Past Commodore, is 98!

At the time, the club had no by-laws, so Wendell wrote them, and they are much the same today. There was only a month-to-month lease, so he negotiated an initial 25-year lease agreement with Channel Islands Marina, making physical improvements to the club more feasible. He presided over an active boating program that included predictive log activities for power boats.

Commodore Wendell facilitated the building of what is now the main dining room, expanding it from just the bar and fireplace room. When the members voted in favor of the expansion, he had to find a way to pay for it. As a banker, he developed a "vested member fee" of $150 apiece to raise the $86,000 needed. When his wife saw the new addition with its exposed rafters and 2x4s, she said it looked like a barn. So he organized a barn dance, complete with hay bales from a local farmer and a country and western band. "It was a great party!" he recalls. And the drywall work? He and another member did that every Sunday afternoon till the job was completed. Over the next five years they added railings and walkways, a dumbwaiter and steam table. Eventually, an elevator was added to make the club accessible to all.

"I was always there when they needed something done," he explains.

He enjoyed frequent CIYC cruises to Santa Cruz Island, one of which featured a picnic on the beach with a tablecloth and candelabra. He entered his boat in the Parade of Lights in 1974, 1975, and 1976 with a Peanuts (cartoon) theme and came in first place overall, and also took sweepstakes all three years.

Through the years Wendell served as Commodore, Director (three years) and Chaplain (six years), as well as Historian. When he was Commodore, a club member acquired about ten bathtubs she proceeded to paint pink. Then the club raced each other, paddling to the sport fishing boat dock across the bay. There was also a memorable club outing in 1980 to Lake Powell, where CIYC members rented several houseboats for a week.

And so it is with a spirit of wonder that we extend these greetings to our own local miracle man and huge contributor to the CIYC we know today:

We Wish You A (belated) Happy Birthday, Wendell!
